RENOVATION & DESIGN

A PROJECT SHOWCASE

Wickland

A renovation story: kitchen, bathroom, stair and hallways, from before to after.

DESIGN AND VISION

Warm Walnut, Soft Blue and White Oak

This Wickland home started with dated wallpaper and finishes, and a kitchen wall that had to be opened right down to the framing. The finished home is bright, warm and built around a few signature pieces.

1

The Kitchen

Warm walnut with soft blue cabinetry, around a big curved island with a fluted base and seating for two, under white pendants.

2

The Stair

A white oak stair with full-height slatted walls. It lets light through and becomes a feature.

3

The Bathroom

A floating walnut vanity, an arched mirror and colourful accent tile.

BEFORE

Where It Started

Wood-panelled walls, a brick fireplace wall and a dated chandelier on the main floor.

BEFORE

Bold Wallpaper, Closed-In Stair

Black and white wallpaper ran through the front hall and up the stair.

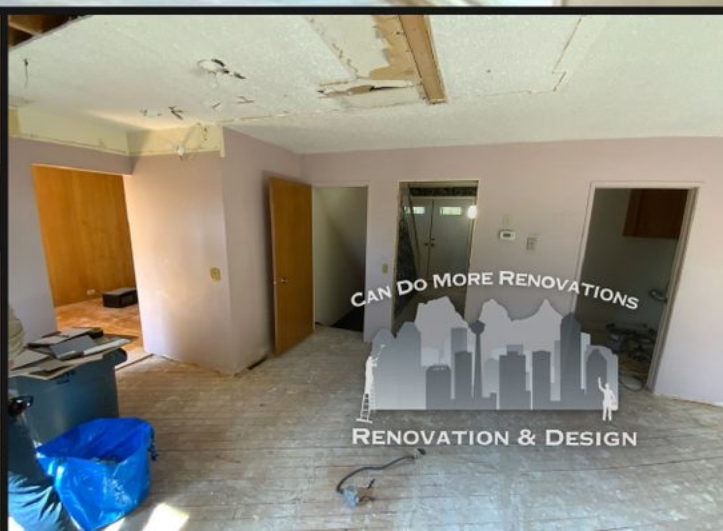

BEFORE

The Kitchen Space

The old kitchen area, stripped back and ready for the new layout.

BEFORE

Two Dated Bathrooms

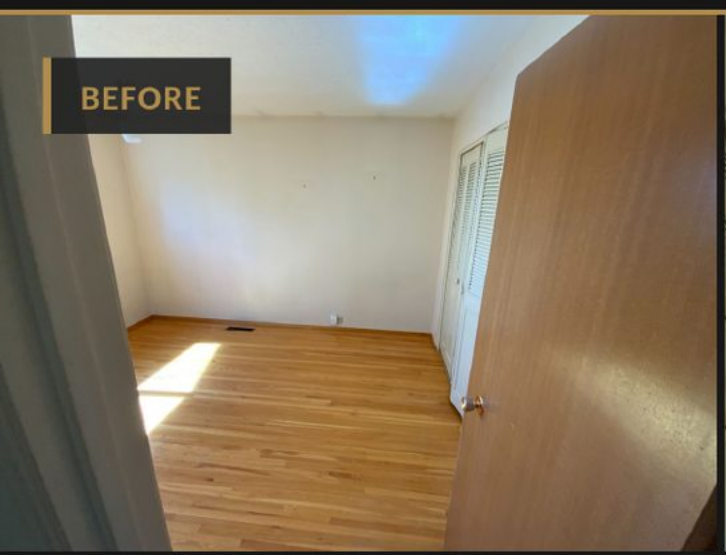

Floral wallpaper in one bathroom and pink tile in another.

BEFORE

Upstairs Rooms

Bedrooms and closets upstairs, as we found them.

DURING

Opened Down to the Framing

The window wall was opened right down to the framing, so everything behind the walls could be sorted out first.

DURING

A Clean Slate

The main floor cleared and opened up, ready for the new layout.

DURING

The Cabinets Go In

Cabinets went in once everything behind the walls was sorted out.

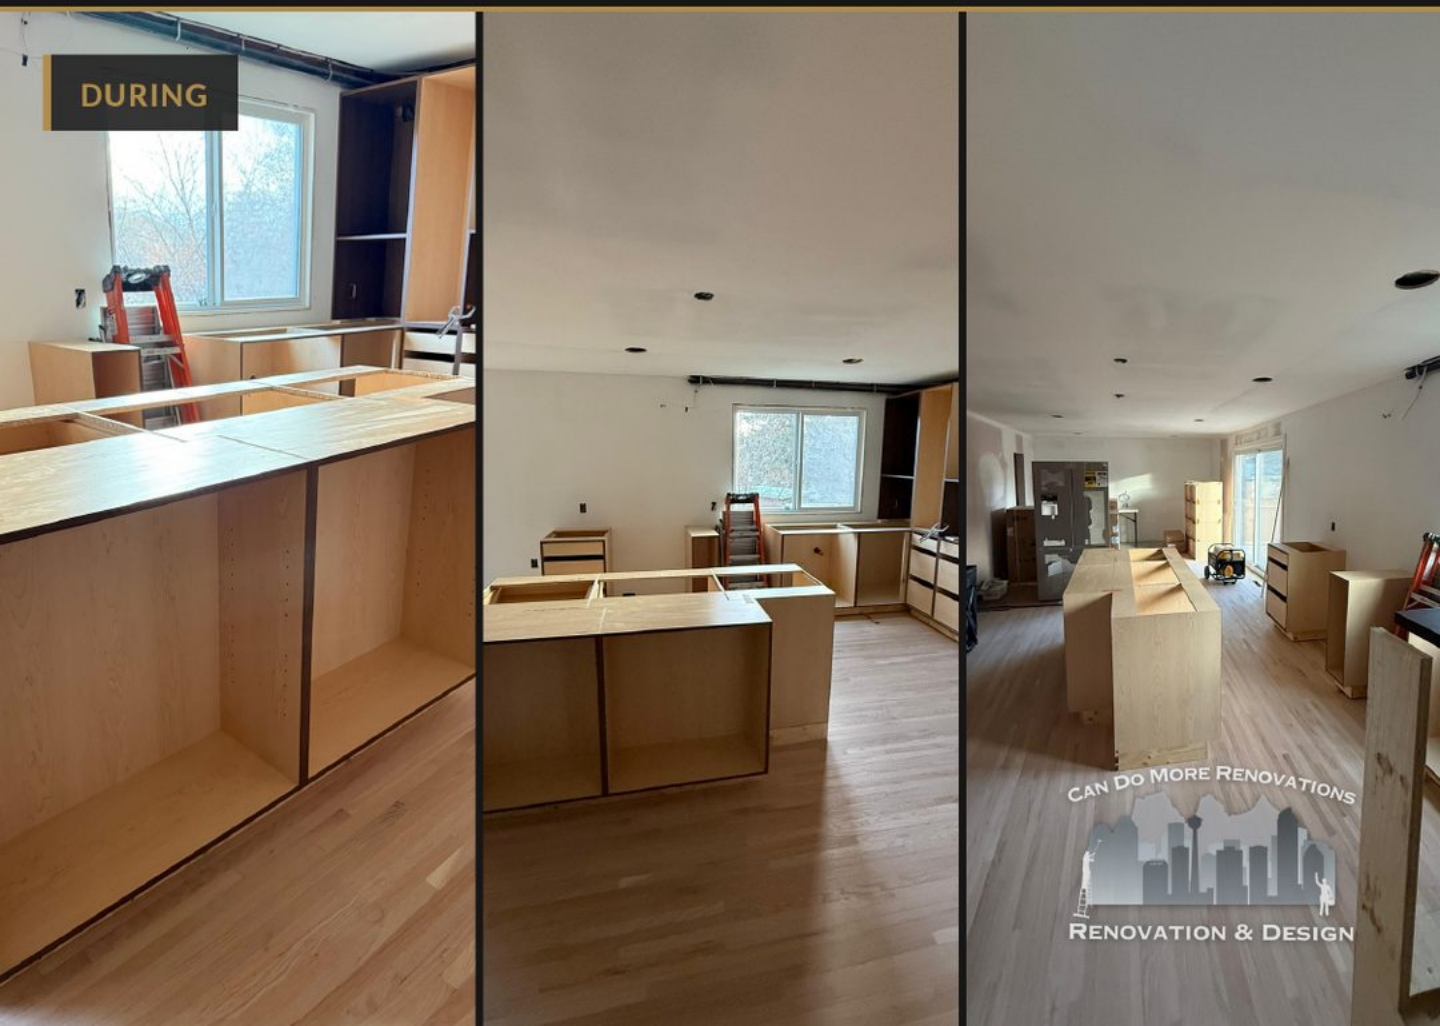

DURING

The Island Takes Shape

Cabinet boxes and the island set in place before the finishes.
